

Resources to Help with Implementing the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law (BIL)

Governmental Resources

White House

- A Guidebook to the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law
This guidebook is a roadmap to the funding available under the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law, as well as an explanatory document that shows, in as much detail as currently available, program-by-program information.

US Department of Transportation

- State by State Fact Sheets
Learn how the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law could impact each state.
- Webinars | Bipartisan Infrastructure Law
Learn about the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law resources by mode.
- RAISE Grants
See who received a 2021 Rebuilding America Infrastructure with Sustainability and Equity (RAISE) grant
- Bridge Formula Program Implementation Guidance
This memorandum provides background, guidance on Administration priorities and use of Federal-aid highway formula funding, eligibilities, fund information, and definitions for the implementation of the Bridge Replacement, Rehabilitation, Preservation, Protection, and Construction Program. It includes new information about the construction of bicycle and pedestrian bridges.
- Apportionment Of Federal-Aid Highway Program Funds for Fiscal Year \(FY\) 2022
Tables at the bottom show the amount of money apportioned for FY 22 by state and program.
- Infrastructure and Investment Jobs Act Request for Information
The Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) issued a notice seeking public input on the implementation of the Infrastructure and Investment Jobs Act (also known as the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law, or BIL). The notice encourages comments on potential opportunities and challenges for implementing new BIL programs or existing programs modified by the BIL; suggestions on how FHWA might implement the BIL; the need for additional guidance, FAQs, or program changes; and areas requiring new and continued research.
 - See an example of a response from the National Association of City Transportation Officials and from Safe Routes Partnership

Non-Governmental Resources

America Walks

- Blogpost - How To Direct Federal Road Funding Into Your Community

Brookings

- Federal Infrastructure Hub
This interactive resource shows the BIL's programs by topics, subtopics, primary federal agency, and spending levels.

Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

- TrailBlog: Policy
Stay informed about trail-related policy. Here's a blogpost about the BIL:

- Analysis: Bipartisan Infrastructure Bill Passes With New Opportunities for Trails, Walking and Biking
- Making the Most of Funding Opportunities in the Infrastructure Bill
This webinar describes how the BIL relates to trails and active transportation projects.

Safe Routes Partnership

- Federal Policy Blog
Stay up to date with information about the BIL and other federal policy. Here are a few blogposts about the BIL:
 - New Year, New Infrastructure Law –Tips to Kick of 2022
 - Safe Routes to School: In Law, but No Dedicated Money. What Does it Mean?
- Transportation Alternatives Program State Implementation
The Safe Routes Partnership works to monitor the progress of State DOTs in administering the federal Safe Routes to School program and the Transportation Alternatives Program, tracking how funds are awarded and obligated. See quarterly tracking reports.
- Where's the Money? Funding Your Active Transportation Project
Learn about frequently used sources of funding for active transportation projects in the US, how to find out what funding is available for your community, and tips for navigating the funding process.
- State Report Cards
These report cards provide a snapshot of how supportive each state is of walking, bicycling, and physical activity for children and adults. They focus on 4 key areas: Complete Streets and Active Transportation Policy and Planning, Federal and State Active Transportation Funding, Safe Routes to School Funding and Supportive Practices, and Active Neighborhoods and Schools.
- Let's Get Together: A Guide for Engaging Communities and Creating Change
This resource is for individuals, organizations, and government agencies working on equity and engagement in Safe Routes to School and beyond. This guide offers tips and strategies for engaging communities as you work together to make meaningful change.

Transportation for America

- 2021 Infrastructure Law
This information hub shares content about the infrastructure law including an overview of the process, financial breakdown of programs, and recommendations for implementation.